[illegible]

Dear Mary

Crested Butte, Colo., 18 July, 1886.

Dear [illegible]

Many thanks for your favor of the fourth of July; and I am glad to see that you were getting so much enjoyment out of your [illegible] midsummer holiday. At [illegible] [illegible] turned the [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and and many firecrackers. [illegible] [illegible] greatly celebrated there and excursionists came from other places even as far as [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], with a brass band. There was a [illegible] [illegible] in the afternoon, and in front [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] a donkey race with children who were [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the donkeys [illegible] and it was very [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] upon going as they [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. There was also a [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] it did not appear to be greased; and greased pole [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and sat there, but there [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] tried in vain [illegible] [illegible] that there was a foot race for men about 100 yards, in which the [illegible] of the hotel was beaten. In the evening there was a grand ball at the hotel; the visitors were all over-worked by the crowd through the day and night; [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] was [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the proprietor [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. I have [illegible] days later, possibly in [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

My [illegible]

Many thanks for your good paper [illegible] with the [illegible] interesting [illegible] letter. If you would kindly give me [illegible] address some time and an address that would do for my other former assistants I hope to be able some day to [illegible] occasionally. [illegible] announcing his [illegible] saying he would write more [illegible] will be pleased to [illegible] and am very glad that [illegible] introduced [illegible] society can take the name [illegible] of Japan so many years [illegible] Probably there is [illegible] individuals [illegible] your [illegible] in English, which [illegible] a pity if they [illegible] name [illegible] without taking their names [illegible] probably [illegible] very [illegible] through your [illegible] with [illegible] always [illegible]

LA VETA HOTEL

GUNNISON, Colo.

R. OLNEY,
MANAGER.

One of the Finest Health & Pleasure Resorts in the Rocky Mountains. Hunting & Fishing Unexcelled.

Rates 3.00 to 4.00. Special Terms by the Month.

GUNNISON, COLORADO.

On the front of this card is a correct cut of Gunnison's $200,000 La Veta Hotel, which has hot and cold water and gas in every room, with all other modern appointments, and which is in every respect one of the finest hotels in the West. Gunnison has railroads leading in five different directions, ore sampling works, large smelting works, good public buildings, excellent schools and refined, cultured society.

To the capitalist its attractions are remarkable. Its resources of inexhaustible fields of anthracite, bituminous and coking coals, and iron ore, all within a radius of thirty miles down grade to Gunnison, are alone sufficient foundation to guarantee the prediction that it must become an important manufacturing city, not to mention its vast mineral resources of gold, silver, copper, lead, fluxing and building material.

To health and pleasure seekers its attractions are hardly excelled; prominent among which are the wonderful

CEBOLLA HOT SPRINGS,

Consisting of a number of the finest mineral springs, ranging in temperature from ice cold to almost boiling hot. These springs have been gaining a reputation for several years, and, during the past two years, have become prominently noted for the many remarkable cures they have effected, which may be attested by the best authority. They are especially good for the cure of rheumatism, catarrh, dyspepsia, female debilities and all kidney and skin diseases.

These springs are located in a beautiful valley, about the same altitude of Gunnison, 7,500 feet, and in the midst of the great iron district only four hours' ride from Gunnison by good carriage road. They are in charge of Mr. A J. Stone, formerly of Scranton, Penn., whose noted hospitality is a guarantee of the comfort of his guests. He has a large ranch and good, comfortable buildings there, and will be prepared to accommodate all who visit the springs, not with second class hotel life, but with first class Western ranch life, where they can enjoy the luxuries of a rural home, with clean beds and an abundance of plain, wholesome diet, including milk, cream, butter, trout, etc. The cost of board will be $7 per week, or a correspondingly low transient rate, and the baths will be free.

One of the chief attractions of this country over most health resorts, of real merit, is our unparalleled climate, with its almost perpetual sunshine, its beautiful mountain scenery, its pure sparkling waters, its cool invigorating air, which of themselves are a specific for health.

There is no lack of amusements. The streams all around you are full of trout; elk, antelope, deer, bear and small game in abundance may be found within easy reach, and acres of wild berries grow near by.

La Veta Hotel, Gunnison, is headquarters for all parties wishing to avail themselves of these attractions. Here all the luxuries of a metropolis may be enjoyed at a cost of $15 to $24 per week, and occasional visits of a few days or weeks may be made to the springs at a cost of $2 each way, where they go in carriage loads. In this way patients may, in the highest degree, combine health treatment and pleasure, a combination not often enjoyed. For special information address
